

Jan. 6. 1859.

Dear Garrison,

2 You will doubtless receive the "Anglo-African Magazine." The editorship, though apparently impersonal, is in the hands of Dr. James McBane Smith, whose scandalous abuse of you and your friends should warn you to be careful not to add anything to his power to do mischief. I drop you this hint, fearing that, in your generosity, you might be induced to say something which you would wish to recall.

Yours, hastily, but warmly,

Oliver Johnson

My dear Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst.

in relation to the business of the company and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities

for their consideration and I am sure that they will give it the attention it deserves

and I am, Sir, very truly, Sir, your
